

MEDIA RELEASE 2017.08.17

The Catholic Guy Ministry is proud to present Heart Women's Conference this October 19-21st 2017. To be held at Fairfield RSL, we expect hundreds of women to come together to refresh and ignite their Catholic faith.

Over the course of 3 days the attendees will be treated to a variety of speakers both externally and internally from The Catholic Guy communities.

Including:

Norma Woodcock is a Public Speaker at State & National level. She is a recognized author & has published numerous articles in Catholic newspapers and magazines throughout Australia. She is a recipient of an award from the Australasian Catholic Press Association for 'Best Devotional Article Applying Faith to Life.' A very highly Commended award given in recognition of excellence. Her area of expertise is Spirituality, specializing in Ignatian Imaginative Meditations on Gospel Scenes.

Rosemary Downes, Senior Pastoral Leader of the Catholic Guy Impact Centres is an encourager of faith and prayer. With the vision of this Heart Conference, Rosemary has a special love for bringing people together as well as embracing the gifts of every individual.

Bruce Downes, Senior Pastoral Leader of the Catholic Guy Impact Centres has a vision for building church communities that people love to attend. A great believer in reaching those who do not connect with the church, Bruce teaches us to value the hidden and hurting, living as authentic community.

Emma McGinniss, graduate of a Bachelor of Laws is a mother of a ten-year-old daughter with a disability. Known for her generous heart, Emma is always looking out for the welfare of others.

Kylie Duff is a faithful, determined woman of God who doesn't let anything stand in the way of the call of God on her life. She is a loving mother and wife. She has a heart for people and she is the Site Leader of The Catholic Guy Impact Centre in Perth.

Registrations are now open at the price of $199 (including meals) and can be obtained through Heart.TheCatholicGuy.com.
